“Margaret Hasse worked as a contracted team member of Ordway's development effort during the 2008-09 year, helping us secure regular grants and sponsorships amounting to almost $3 million. She also expanded our funding base for the future through succeeding with applications for new six-figure, multi-year grants to The Wallace Foundation and The Bush Foundation. I really enjoyed working with her. She's conscientious, smart, and personable.”

-Ms. Lee Koch, Vice President, External Relations,
Ordway Center for the Performing Arts

“Margaret really knows the non-profit arts world and brings great intelligence, appreciation, and expertise to her work in planning and executing projects. She’s a superlative facilitator and writer and a lovely human being.”

- Kathee Foran, Managing Director, 1991-2010,
In the Heart of the Beast Puppet and Mask Theatre

“We received the huge mentoring grant you wrote for us. WOW, you did an outstanding job. I am so impressed with your writing.”

- Grants Director, Saint Paul Public Schools

“The work you did to help us develop a clearer idea of our role as Board members, and a fundraising plan was outstanding. You are amazing as a planner, writer, organizer.”

- Board Member, Minnesota Adoption Resource Network

“Your sharp focus on the needs of Children’s Safety Centers as a fundraising planner and grant writer was very helpful to us.”

- Executive Director, Children’s Safety Center
